Increased possible offer for CAB Payments Holdings plc by the Helios Consortium

US$1.15 in cash per CAB Payments Holdings plc share

Partial unlisted share alternative

The Helios Consortium (as defined below) announces that it is seeking the recommendation for an increased possible offer it made on 29 January 2026 to the board of CAB Payments Holdings plc ("CAB Payments") to acquire the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of CAB Payments excluding those shares already held by Helios Fund III (as defined below) (the "Increased Possible Offer").

The Helios Consortium holds, controls or has received a letter of support for the Increased Possible Offer in respect of 127,905,170 CAB Payments shares, representing 50.33 per cent. of the issued share capital of CAB Payments (further details of the Helios Fund III shareholding and the letter of support are set out below).

Under the terms of the Increased Possible Offer, CAB Payments' shareholders would be entitled to receive US$1.15 in cash per existing CAB Payments share (the "Cash Offer").

Should a firm offer be made, the Helios Consortium would also make available a partial unlisted share alternative (the "Unlisted Share Alternative").

The Increased Possible Offer price represents a:

- 21% premium to the volume weighted average share price for the thirty-day trading period ended 30 January 2026;
- 37% premium to the volume weighted average share price for the ninety-day trading period ended 30 January 2026; and
- value of US$292 million and £213 million (based on the closing US:GBP spot exchange rate as at 30 January 2026) for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of CAB Payments.

The Increased Possible Offer has been structured to provide CAB Payments' shareholders with a full cash exit and to enable those shareholders who wish to remain invested to participate in the future of the Company through the Unlisted Share Alternative.

On 24 January 2026, a previous possible offer made by the Helios Consortium to the Board of CAB Payments of US$1.05 in cash per existing CAB Payments share was rejected by an independent committee of the Board of CAB Payments.

The Helios Consortium believes after CAB Payments' challenging period as a listed company, including a profit downgrade, executive leadership change and a withdrawn possible offer from StoneX Group Inc., the long-term success of the business will be better supported under the Helios Consortium's private ownership.

In accordance with Rule 2.5(a) of the Code, the Helios Consortium reserves the right to make an offer for CAB Payments on less favourable terms than US$1.15 in cash per CAB Payments share and/or not to offer the Unlisted Share Alternative: (i) with the agreement or recommendation of the CAB Payments' board; (ii) if a third party announces a possible offer or a firm intention to make an offer for CAB Payments which, at that date, is of a value less than the Cash Offer; or (iii) following the announcement by CAB Payments of a Rule 9 waiver transaction pursuant to the Code. The Helios Consortium reserves the right to introduce other forms of consideration and/or vary the form or mix of consideration of any offer. In accordance with Rule 2.6(a) of the Code, the Helios Consortium must, by not later than 5.00 pm (London time) on 2 March 2026, either announce a firm intention to make an offer, subject to conditions or pre-conditions if relevant, for CAB Payments in accordance with Rule 2.7 of the Code or announce that it does not intend to make an offer for CAB Payments, in which case the announcement will be treated as a statement to which Rule 2.8 of the Code applies. This deadline can be extended with the consent of the Takeover Panel in accordance with Rule 2.6(c) of the Code. Other than in respect of the Unlisted Share Alternative, for the purposes of the Code, any offer, if made, is likely to be in cash.

An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror, save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Other than in respect of any partial unlisted share alternative, for the purposes of the Code, any offer if made is likely to be in cash.

Any such details shall be announced as soon as practicable and in any event by no later than the deadline for the Helios Consortium's Opening Position Disclosure.
